

Operation: Veteran Freedom

A transformational workshop for Veterans and their families

Have you asked these questions?

- ◇ How come being home doesn't feel like I'm home?
- ◇ What is the matter with me?
- ◇ What can I do now?

What if:

- ⇒ We empower you to discover freedom from your past, freedom from regret & blame?
- ⇒ When life doesn't go the way you want, you could now deal with it powerfully?

Welcome to Operation: Veteran Freedom where ...

You will experience more power, freedom, full self-expression and peace of mind!

Hear what other Veterans have said:

"I am at peace. I don't feel alone anymore. I can forgive myself and learn to love myself again."

Afghanistan - Navy Seal

"I am free of my anger."

Vietnam - Army Veteran

"A great sense of peace and understanding of the things I create for myself."

Iraq - Veteran

"I have been in therapy for seven years and nothing has made this kind of difference. This Workshop has changed my life and I can now have a great marriage and a better life."

Afghanistan - Army Nurse

"As a Senior NCO with over 52 months of combat and many years of therapy, this workshop has brought peace, understanding and shown me my life's purpose. ALL Senior Leadership should take this!"

Iraq & Afghanistan - Army Veteran

Logistic information:

When: Friday May 19th, 10 — 4:00

Where: Portland Community College - Cascade Campus, Cascade Hall Room 310, Portland, OR

Why: You create freedom from the past and a future of hope for you and those around you.

What: Workshop led by Vietnam era Combat Veteran who will relate and give you the power to shift your view of life.

Pre-registration required, contact:

Theresa Flores, theresa.flores@pcc.edu

Rod Wittmier, rod.wittmier@na2evs.org

For workshop details visit: www.na2evs.org/ovf